Play value

Children love furniture which is provided especially for them. They prefer unusual seating which they can also use for play activities. The Round Table with 8 Benches encourages communication, and, at the same time, it can be the focal point of an outdoor area. A round table, even a small one, encourages common activities. It allows people to look at each other, thus making it easier to develop a community spirit.

Fundamental characteristics

- Wooden surface which appeals to the senses
- Agreeable design
